

Pennsylvania To Have Two Stop Streets

Installation of boulevard stop signs on Pennsylvania avenue at 235th and at 238th streets is scheduled to be made shortly, following a traffic check made by Police Chief John Stroh. His recommendations have been concurred in by the City Council. Plans are to stop traffic from all four directions at the 238th street intersection, and from two directions at 235th street. Chief Stroh said he believed no additional boulevard stop signs were needed as yet in the Seaside Ranchos section.

NOW OPEN TO HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

This is important news to every young man from 20 1/2 to 23 who has graduated from high school or who can pass equivalent education examinations. Under a new ruling, you may now enlist in the U. S. Army for the specific purpose of attending Officer Candidate School, provided the quotas are not filled.

You must be a citizen of the United States, and a man of high moral character, able to meet the necessary physical requirements.

To take advantage of this unusual privilege, you may submit your application to the Commanding General of the Army area in which you live. If you are selected, you will be enlisted in the Army as Staff Sergeant. If you have not had basic training or its equivalent, you will be given this training before entering Officer Candidate School.

If you are a successful candidate, you will be commissioned as Second Lieutenant in the Officers Reserve Corps and placed on active duty for two years, during which time you may compete for a Regular Army Commission. Should you fail to complete the course successfully, you will be released from the Army.

The opportunity to qualify for Officer Candidate School is, and has been, open to men in the Army. But never before during peacetime has such a remarkable opportunity to become a commissioned officer been open to civilian high school graduates. Get all the facts about it today at your U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station.

Pave Way for Soap Factory refinery at Crenshaw and 190th street is believed to be an advantage, as the new soapless detergents use petroleum by-products in their manufacture.

"Breeze," Lever's first entry into the soapless detergent market, has achieved second place in the hard-water areas in which it is marketed, according to Charles Luckman, president of Lever Brothers Company.

Two years ago, at the age of 37, when Luckman became president of the Lever Brothers firm, he embarked upon a broad program of expansion. The most recent development is the outright purchase of the John F. Jelke Co., manufacturers of "Good Luck" margarine, with annual sales of nearly $25,000,000.

The Jelke purchase, announced by President Luckman on June 24, is the fourth major acquisition by Lever Brothers under its expansion program. It is the company's first entry into the margarine business.

During the past two years Lever sales of soap, shortening and dentifrices have increased 51 percent, Luckman reported.

A year ago Luckman bought Harriet Hubbard Ayer, Inc., cosmetic and perfume firm, and in recent months bought the Luxor cosmetic business from Armour & Co., of Chicago.

In May of this year Lever became a major factor in the beauty-preparation field with the acquisition of the Rayve line, including "Rayve Creme Shampoo."

Incorporated in 1889, the recently-acquired Jelke Company was one of the nation's pioneer margarine manufacturers. Jelke also makes and distributes a bulk shortening, mayonnaise, a salad dressing and a sandwich spread.

In announcing his latest move, Luckman disclosed that three products had, in the last two years, regained top position in the soap market. "Lux," he said, is now the largest selling toilet soap in the United States; "Rinso," the largest-selling laundry powder in the soap market, and "Lux Flakes" the leading fine fabric soap.

Local Clerk Dispute Ends

that the negotiating committee of the San Pedro Business Men Associated, Inc., and the Retail Clerks Union have substantially reached agreements which are satisfactory to all parties.

"These agreements will be submitted to both our memberships and the members of the Retail Clerks Union for ratification. After ratification by both the variety stores and the mercantile stores the two agreements will be executed jointly.

"We are very happy at a problem which has affected the entire harbor area for many months. Details of the contract will be announced following final signing."

Walter Hooke, spokesman for the variety stores, said:

"We understand that the variety clerks of the Retail Clerks Union have okayed the agreement with Kress, Woolworth and Newberry's. We are glad to know that this action has been taken.

"We also have been advised by the San Pedro Business Men Associated, Inc., of which our companies are members, that agreements have been reached between its negotiating committee and the Retail Clerks Union for the retail merchants as a whole.

"The agreement will be submitted to both employers and the Union for ratification.

"With this understanding, the three variety stores are now preparing to open their stores in the harbor area. We are stocking these stores and arranging for clerks. Upon the final signature to all the agreements, we will be able to make an announcement as to the exact date of the re-opening of the Kress, Woolworth and Newberry stores."

Speaking as chairman of the San Pedro Committee for Civic Betterment, Harry M. Carr said:

"I am pleased with the very definite progress that seems to have been made. I wish to reiterate that we have made no attack at any time upon the San Pedro Retail Clerks Union No. 905 or any other organization; nor have we, (aside from the first article which appeared Oct. 17, 1947), made any comment upon wage scales or working conditions.

"We believe that this is a matter for negotiations between the interested parties.

"With reference to the J. C. Penney Company, I believe it is the wholehearted sentiment of the people of these three communities (San Pedro, Wilmington and Torrance) that the J. C. Penney Company reopen negotiations in conjunction with the business men's organizations and its stores.

"It is my desire that there be no hard feelings nor ill will in any of the three communities and that we all work together for our common welfare."

Tidwell said:

"As the representative of the Retail Clerks Union in the harbor district, I am very happy that we have been able to arrive at a satisfactory agreement with the variety stores in the harbor district.

"The membership of the Retail Clerks Union employed in these stores last year voted to accept the proposed agreement of the variety stores. We were very disappointed when these stores last year cancelled their offer, closed their stores and subjected our people to unemployment.

"It is the desire of the Retail Clerks in the harbor district to work in harmony with the employers to improve their business and to better the wages, hours and working conditions of themselves at the same time.

"The Retail Clerks feel that if the citizens of the harbor district would shop in the harbor district instead of going to communities outside of this area that our community could be the most prosperous in Southern California. We urge upon all residents to patronize their local merchants, because by only such patronage can we have a flourishing community."

HEADS SCHOOL—Lloyd W. Waller, principal of Torrance High School last year, who will become principal of the new Manhattan Beach-Hermosa Beach High School, now building.

Waller Heads School Plant for Redondo

Lloyd W. Waller, who served as principal of Torrance High School, has been selected to head the new multi-million dollar high school plant which will serve Manhattan Beach and Hermosa Beach, it was announced this week by W. K. Cobb, superintendent of Redondo Union High School district.

Because of his wide experience in the administration of Torrance High School and as the first dean of El Camino college, Waller was selected by Redondo school officials to assist in developing plans for the new school plant to serve the two rapidly growing communities to the north.

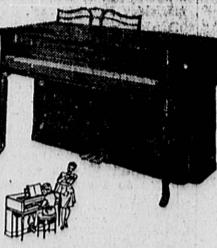

Waller also is to act as part-time curriculum advisor for the Redondo district during the next school year. The new school plant, for which plans now are being prepared, will be on Gould Lane, one-half mile inland from Pacific Coast Highway.

CROWDS SEE BLAZE

Holiday crowds had an unexpected bit of excitement Monday when a fire broke out in a ravine near the Palos Verdes golf course.

The blaze raged up the ravine, but was brought under control after an hour without serious damage.

Like the Beach? Municipal Buses Take You There!

If you wish to lounge on the sand on Alondra Park Lake, you can get there via Torrance Municipal Bus Lines, according to Marshall A. Chamberlain, superintendent.

Seven buses daily, operating between Torrance and Hawthorne, go within 500 feet of the artificially created lake, just north of Redondo Beach boulevard.

Thousands of persons from all over the southern section of the county have enjoyed the sandy beach, which is warmer than at the ocean. The lake is fed by a constant flow of fresh well water.

Councilman Nicholas Drake said he believed there are many Torrance residents, including vacationing children, who do not realize that the municipal bus now is routed past the lake.

City Accepts Gasoline Bid for 1948-49

The firm of Ragsdale and Newell will furnish gasoline needed by the various city departments for the fiscal year 1948-49, with award of a contract by the Torrance City Council.

Ragsdale and Newell will furnish two grades of gasoline under the trade name of the Hancock Oil Company at a cost of 15.7 cents per gallon for regular and 16.7 cents for ethyl grade, which was the firm's low bid, opened at the June 22 council meeting.

Bids of the Union Oil Company, Pathfinder Petroleum Company, Associated Oil Company and the Shell Oil Company were rejected. The Shell Company's bid was missent to Rosemead, but when opened June 29 was higher than the Ragsdale and Newell bid so was also rejected.
